

The Hymn Society of Great Britain and Ireland

– Legal Changes to the Handling of Personal Data

You may already have heard that Data Protection laws within the UK will change in May 2018 when the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) becomes part of the legal basis for handling personal data. As a result, The Hymn Society is required to obtain your permission (“consent”) to keep and process some of the details we hold about you as a member.

Please note:

- This consent applies mostly to data you have already supplied to us.
- If you do not provide consent as explained here, we will delete this data, to meet our legal obligations to you.
- This consent does not apply to your name and address. We need those to fulfil our obligations to you as a member of the Society (for example, sending you the Bulletin and other mailings) so “consent” does not apply in that case.
- This consent applies to all individual members of The Hymn Society, including those who live outside the EU. It does not apply to institutional members (e.g. libraries).

Please supply your consent no later than 16 May 2018. You can do this:

- either by sending the form overleaf to the Secretary, Revd Robert A. Canham, Windrush, Braithwaite, Keswick CA12 5SZ;
- or by going to our website (<https://hymnsocietygbi.org.uk/>) where you can find an online Consent form on the “Contact us” pages.

The website also contains our Data Policy and our Privacy Notices where you can find further details of how we handle your data and of your legal rights under the new legislation.

If you wish to change any of the consent details you provide to us, you may do this at any time, either by contacting the Secretary (as above) or by using the “Contact us” pages on our website.

Please write your name and the date in the boxes at the top of this form and tick either “Consent” or “Do not consent” on each other row. You do not need to provide details of name, address, telephone number and email on this form since this Consent Form relates to data already held by The Hymn Society.

Name:	Date:
I consent to The Hymn Society of Great Britain and Ireland keeping and using my personal data as follows:
	Consent	Do not consent
My telephone number(s) and email address, to be held on the master membership list for general and pastoral contact; and to be shared with HSUSC and / or IAH, if I have joint membership(s) of those organisations
Members’ Directory: My personal data, on the Directory made available to individual members within the UK and EU on request and for their personal use only:
• Name and address
• Telephone number(s)
• Email address		